Last Wednesday, Mike Warren started working with Jason and Emily as the new Clean Cities intern. Mike is in his junior year at UNC Charlotte in the electrical engineering department and also works for Duke Energy as a co-op student. He is a Resident Assistant at UNC Charlotte, is very knowledgeable about useful web applications, and is the university chapter VP for the National Society of Black Engineers. He will act as the Clean Cities intern until early May, for approximately 20 hours per week – Jason and Emily are delighted to have him!
